

Jackson Hole Center for Global Affairs

Testimonials

"Thank you for paving the way for Wyoming's relationship with China."

- Wyoming Governor Matt Mead

"I want to thank the Jackson Hole Center for Global Affairs for creating this watering hole for these two countries to come together. I want to remind us all that we want to build a legacy of natural resources and a more sustainable climate for our future."

- Hon. John F. Turner, Former Assistant Secretary of State for Oceans, Environment, and International Scientific Cooperation

"Looking back to the past more than ten years, the Jackson Hole Center for Global Affairs cooperated sincerely with Shanxi Province and achieved substantial results. Mr. Wendt has made great contributions to the establishment of the profound friendship between the people of Shanxi and the people of Wyoming."

- Wu Shaozhong, Deputy Director General of the Foreign and Overseas Chinese Affairs Office of Shanxi Provincial People's Government

"I first learned of the idea of carbon capture and storage ten years ago when I attended the 2004 meeting of the U.S.-China Clean Energy Initiative, organized by the Jackson Hole Center for Global Affairs, in Jackson. Five years later we established a Climate Change Division in Shanxi Province, and I am now head of that division."

- Wu Dongsheng, Chief, Climate Change Division, Shanxi Provincial Development and Reform Commission

"It is amazing what your organization has achieved with such limited resources."

- Hon. James D. Wolfensohn, Former President, World Bank

"JHCGA has given the valley a front row seat for one of the most contentious debates in human history: what to do about global warming."

- Todd Wilkinson, journalist

"Your organization has tremendous credibility. The Wyoming Legislature and Executive Branch in Cheyenne need to know what an asset you are to the state."

- Tom Lubnau, Former Speaker, Wyoming House of Representatives

"I appreciate it that JHCGA put the trip together and used their relationships in China to open doors for us. It's not something we could have done ourselves."

- Mary Throne, Wyoming House Minority Leader
